

Unama'ki Institute of Natural Resources

Employment Opportunity

Research Liaison and Coordinator

(Full time, three year position, with possibility of renewal)

UINR and Community-Engaged CoLab at Dalhousie University are seeking a Research Coordinator to oversee two projects focusing on community engagement and facilitation training.

The first project funded by the Aboriginal Fund for Species at Risk titled Using culturally appropriate approaches to mitigate impacts to species at risk from interactions from the Mi'kmaw lobster fishery in Unama'ki, to develop and facilitate best practice training on species at risk identification for the Mi'kmaw lobster fishery.

The second project, funded by SSHRC Race, Gender, Diversity (RGD) Initiative grant funded project titled Jiksitatulti'kw: listening to each other, to liaise is between UINR, Dalhousie University, communities, and students on a project regarding Mi'kmaw led research.

It is anticipated that 50% of the candidate's time will be devoted to each project.

ELIGIBILITY REQUIREMENTS

- Mi'kmaq (required for AFSAR project)
- Experience working in Mi'kmaq communities in Unama'ki
- Experience in coordination
- A Bachelor degree preferred but not required

YOUR ROLE

- Coordinating with UINR and helping research assistants at the Community Engaged-CoLab
- Liaising with the community, facilitating data collection (e.g., interviews/focus groups), and coordinating events (e.g., community workshops) for interactive workshops
- Liaising with other Mi'kmaw organizations with fisheries responsibilities
- Supporting the recruitment of participants

Salary Range $48,709 to $53,938 depending on qualifications and experience.

Deadline for application: June 28th, 2023 4pm AST

Send resumes and cover letter to:
Annie Johnson, Director of Administration
annie@uinr.ca

Only candidates considered will be contacted for interviews. Personal suitability will be considered during the hiring process. UINR hires on the basis of merit and is committed to employment equity. We encourage all qualified persons to apply; however, qualified Aboriginal applicants will be given priority in accordance with the Aboriginal Employment Preference policy of the Canadian Human Rights Commission.

uinr.ca